Leadership and Wisdom Through Human Connection

Wise Ways Consulting, Inc. is a Small Woman and Minority (SWaM) owned company providing the highest-quality consulting services to meet the training, planning and visioning needs of commercial and Federal Government clients. Our consulting team specializes in working with clients to understand their business needs, plan strategically, and then develop and facilitate high quality training programs.

Our president is a dynamic and engaging facilitator with a positive and motivating style and a solid reputation for integrity and results. Through her international consulting and training, Ms. Davies has developed innovative development programs that effectively align management teams and company sectors to generate collaborative systemic solutions. With over twenty years experience in results-focused facilitation, consulting, training, and executive coaching for non-profits, private and public sector clients, Ms. Davies knows how to quickly establish rapport with audiences and clients. Her ability to put both junior and senior leadership teams at ease allows her to effectively lead strategic planning and project improvement programs as well as team effectiveness sessions to elevate people to the next level of leadership success.
